THE COLLEGE

For more than fifty years Millsaps College has offered to the youth of the South the best in higher education.

As a living spirit of service, Millsaps draws inspiration from dramatic beginnings. Almost a century has passed since the boy Reuben Webster Millsaps dreamed of making it possible for the highest type of Mississippi's youth to secure a Christian education here at home in the Magnolia State.

Today Millsaps College stands in Jackson, product of a half-century of development, as the realization of that dream. Major Millsaps lived to see the College recognized as an institution deeprooted in the traditions of scholarship. Through his work, and that of those who followed him, the work has gone on.

With material and inspirational support from Major Millsaps, the Mississippi conferences of the Methodist church resolved in 1888 to establish a college for men. Four years later, with four professors and a handful of students, Millsaps opened its doors in the city of Jackson. Coeducation was instituted when the college began its seventh session.

The Rev. W. B. Murrah, of the North Mississippi conference, launched the institution's career as its first president. President Murrah and the executive heads who followed him after he became a Methodist bishop have played leading roles in making the institution what it is.

Former presidents of the college were W. B. Murrah, D.D., LL.D., (1892-1910); D. C. Hull, M.A., (1910-1912); A. F. Watkins, D.D., (1912-1923); D. M. Key, Ph.D., LL.D., (1923-1938). Dr. M. L. Smith, Ph.D., LL.D., has been president since 1938.

Growth of the college has been consistent and healthy. For the first 25 years attendance was almost static, fluctuating between 100 and 200. Then the 1920's witnessed the beginning of a steady rise, reaching a peak during the 1928-29 session. The enrollment then remained between 400 and 500 until the 1938-39 session. During the Navy V-12 program, Millsaps had 600 students. The enrollment for 1946-1947 is approximately 800.

"No finer or more wholesome young people were ever assembled in any college community," says a recent presidential report to the Methodist conferences of Mississippi. "They have made the reputation of Millsaps and have been excelled in no line of academic endeavor. Almost without exception they have found a place of useful service. They are the chief outcome of Methodist college effort in Mississippi."

Pointing out that the value of a college such as Millsaps may be measured by the subsequent careers of those it trains, the report shows that an overwhelming proportion of those entering the Methodist ministry in Mississippi are Millsaps graduates.

"Not only through Millsaps-trained pastors, but also through her graduates who are teaching in the public schools and engaged in business and professions, Millsaps is contributing to the highest interest of church and state," continues the report. "There are more than 400 Millsaps graduates and many more former students teaching in state schools. Most of the more than 1,500 graduates are now living in Mississippi."

Looking forward to a Greater Millsaps, the two conferences of the Methodist Church in Mississippi began, during the fall of 1938, a $400,000 endowment drive. College needs for which funds are sought include an endowment increase, strengthening of the library, and a religion and fine-arts building. This movement is being continued in the dollar-a-month endowment fund, inaugurated by Dr. Smith in 1940.

A keynote to the spirit of Millsaps College was recently struck by a prominent graduate who had returned to the campus for a chapel address. He paid tribute to his alma mater as an institution which instills in its students "a conception of the things which really count—the ultimate values." He added that "Millsaps 'goes in for' the things which widen one's vision . . . which enable him to look for the horizon which others have not yet seen."

GENERAL INFORMATION

RESOURCES

The physical resources, the grounds, the buildings, and the endowment are sufficient to enable the college to do a high grade of work; but all, except the area of the grounds, need to be strengthened in order to accommodate increase of enrollment, to improve the conditions under which the work is done, to increase the faculty support, to maintain an improved physical plant, to beautify the campus, and to offset probable decrease in endowment productivity.

GROUNDS

The campus of 100 acres, situated on a beautiful eminence near the heart of the city, is large enough to afford room for the full development of all the phases of college life. It is pleasantly wooded with many fine old oaks and elms and open fields and playing grounds. Much improvement in the appearance of the campus has been effected in recent years. A fine concrete drive gives access to all the buildings. Two commodious playing fields for football and baseball, a track, and tennis courts are readily reached from the heart of the campus. A fine nine-hole golf course covers the north end of the campus, with convenient access to the showers and dressing rooms in the gymnasium.

BUILDINGS

The instructional buildings are all relatively new and modern. The administration building, Murrah Hall, was erected in 1914; the Carnegie-Millsaps Library building in 1926; the Sullivan-Harrell Science Hall in 1928; and the Buie Memorial Building for Physical Education in 1936. These buildings, which constitute the heart of the institution, are well equipped for the functions they are designed to perform. The examining committee of Phi Beta Kappa said in regard to them: "The library, though small, seems adequate, and the collections are well chosen. The laboratories in the new science building are adequate; the equipment is new and up-to-date."

Founders and Whitworth have recently been redecorated for use by girls.

Galloway and Burton Halls house men students.

Beginning with the fifty-fifth session of the college, the U. S. government placed on the south end of the campus thirty-two trailers and two prefabricated units for veteran housing.

ENDOWMENT

The productive endowment, according to the last audit, amounted to $962,000. In addition to the income from this endowment, the college budget receives pro rata share of conference assessments amounting to $5,000. Owing to decrease in the productivity of invested funds as well as the need of greater operating income, the college needs contributions to its endowment more urgently than anything else. The statement of total assets derived from the last official audit, June 30, 1946, is as follows:

Current Funds	$ 147,702.46
Loan Funds	9,873.14
Endowment	962,000.00
Plant Funds	1,210,000.00

CARNEGIE-MILLSAPS LIBRARY

Near the close of the 1905-06 session, Andrew Carnegie offered to give the college $15,000 for a library building if the trustees would supply endowment of equal amount. Major Millsaps added to his many contributions by giving the full amount of the endowment.

The foundations of this handsome building unfortunately gave way, and it became necessary to provide a new library. The Carnegie Corporation generously appropriated $50,000 for this purpose. The present building was completed in 1925-26 and with the addition of a second floor of shelving, recently completed, will house 50,000 volumes. Furniture for the reading rooms was given by the Enochs Lumber & Manufacturing Company. In 1944 the interior of the library was redecorated and in 1946 additional furniture was purchased to provide for the increased use of the reading rooms. An electric water-cooler was also installed.

During the session of 1941-42 the Historical Society of the Mississippi Conference placed its valuable and interesting collection of books and papers relating to Mississippi Methodist history in a special room in the library. A special grant of $10,000 for the purchase of books was made by the Carnegie Corporation during the five years 1931-1936, and about 4,600 volumes were added from this source. The income from the Martha A. Turner Fund of $1,000, founded by Mrs. J. R. Bingham of Carrollton, Miss., is used for the purchase of books in English literature.

An additional grant of $15,000 has been made by the Rockefeller Foundation to extend through the period of 1944-48. This sum is assigned to the purchase of books and is to be matched by the college with a like amount for the enlargement and equipment of the building. The General Board of Education of the Methodist Church has made a grant to the library of $2,500 for the purchase of additional stacks and equipment. The Carnegie Foundation permits as much as $1,000 of its grant for the improvement of teaching through research to be used annually for the purchase of books by the library.

Library Hours: Monday through Friday, 8 to 5, 6 to 9:30; Saturday, 8 to 4. The library is closed during the Thanksgiving, Christmas, and spring holidays.

A special collection of documents, manuscripts, and books on Methodism in Mississippi has been started, and gifts of material related to this subject would be especially valuable.

At the end of the 1945-46 session the library contained 30,000 volumes.

Donors to the Library in 1944-1945: State of Mississippi: Secretary of State, Walker Wood; United States: Dept. of Commerce; U. S.: Office of Education; Carnegie Corporation of New York; Rockefeller Foundation; International Relations Club; Sam Barefield; American Legion, Dept. of Miss.; Univ. of Colorado; Dr. J. M. Sullivan; Miss Dora Hwa.

Donors to the Library in 1945-1946 (to date): Prof. Charles Galloway; Standard Oil Development Co.; Rev. R. L. Hunt; Mr. Robert E. Farr; Geological Society of America; University of North Carolina Press; Mrs. T. W. Kemmerer.

Donors: 1946-1947: Mr. Irving Fisher; Miss Elizabeth Craig; family of J. Reese Lin; Mrs. W. H. Watkins; Sec. of State of Miss.; Carnegie Foundation; Carnegie Corporation; Rockefeller Foundation; University of North Carolina; Weston A. Price; Miss. Geological Survey; U. S. Dept. of Agriculture.

SCHOLARSHIPS, LOANS, PRIZES

ENDOWED FUNDS

The income from the following funds may be used by the Board of Trustees to aid deserving applicants:

The Clara Chrisman Scholarship
The Peebles Scholarship
The W. H. Watkins Scholarship
The Marvin Galloway Scholarship
The J. A. Moore Scholarship

SPECIAL SCHOLARSHIPS

THE TRIBBETT SCHOLARSHIP

The student to whom the scholarship is awarded receives two hundred dollars, payable one-half at the beginning of the first semester and one-half at the beginning of the second. The award is subject to the following conditions:

This scholarship is to be awarded at the end of each session to the member of the sophomore or junior class whose quality index is highest for the year, subject to the following qualifications:

a. He must be a regular student with not less than thirty-two semester hours' work for the year, and must have made at least "C" in each of the subjects studied.

b. He must be qualified for and agree to perform work assigned by the president of the college.

JOHN RUNDLE, JR., SCHOLARSHIP

The John Rundle, Jr., scholarship was created by his parents in memory of their son. This is a scholarship open to any student of Millsaps College, and the student to whom the scholarship is awarded receives $200.00.

RICKETTS SCHOLARSHIP

The R. S. Ricketts scholarship. This scholarship was created by Professor Ricketts' two sons and named for R. S. Ricketts, their father.

THE W. H. BREWER SCHOLARSHIP

The W. H. Brewer Scholarship was created by his son, Mr. Ed C. Brewer of Clarksdale and is open to any student at Millsaps College. The student to whom the scholarship is awarded receives $40.00.

FRESHMAN SCHOLARSHIPS

The Board of Trustees has authorized the award of one four-year tuition scholarship valued at $500, one two-year tuition scholarship valued at $250, and one one-year tuition scholarship valued at $125. In addition, ten scholarships worth $75 each and twenty scholarships worth $50 each are awarded each year to graduates of Mississippi high schools upon recommendation of the Scholarship Awards Committee. The awards are made on the basis of psychological examinations and interviews held at the college in the spring of each year. Only those ranking in the upper 10% of their class and able to furnish evidence of good character and promise of usefulness are eligible to apply for these scholarships. Application forms may be secured from Dr. M. L. Smith, President of Millsaps College.

SERVICE SCHOLARSHIPS

There are service scholarships in each of several departments, the holders of which are expected to aid the head of the department in some definite work. These scholarships are ordinarily open only to members of the upper classes. Application should be made to the president of the college.

METHODIST EDUCATION BOARD SCHOLARSHIP

The Methodist Education Board Scholarship provides tuition and fees for Methodist students who have ranked within the upper fifteen percent of their high school graduating class.

THE JAMES HAND, SR., SCHOLARSHIP

The James Hand, Sr., Scholarship has been created by James Hand, Jr., honoring his father of Rolling Fork, Mississippi.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Gilbert, Meridian, Mississippi, are endowing a loan scholarship as a memorial to their son Kenneth who lost his life in World War II.

LOAN FUNDS

THE W. T. J. SULLIVAN MEMORIAL LOAN FUND

This fund is administered by Dr. J. M. Sullivan, Professor Emeritus of Chemistry and Geology, Millsaps College.

MEDALS AND PRIZES

1. The Founder's Medal is awarded annually to the member of the senior class who has made the highest quality index for the entire college course and has received a grade of excellent on his comprehensive examination. Only students who have done at Millsaps College all the work required for the degree are eligible for this award.

2. The Bourgeois Medal is awarded annually to the member of the freshman, sophomore, or junior class who has made the highest quality-index during the year. Such student must be a candidate for a degree, and must have taken a minimum of thirty semester hours of college work during the year in which the medal is awarded to him. No student who has won this medal can compete for it again.

3. The John C. Carter Medal for Oratory is awarded annually to the student who presents the best original oration in the oratorical contest. This contest is open to men and women students and is held in February or March of each year.

4. The Clark Essay Medal shall be awarded annually to that student who presents the best and most original paper in any English course in Millsaps College.

5. The Buie Medal for Declamation is open to members of the freshman and sophomore classes, but it cannot be awarded to any student more than once. The contest for this medal is held at commencement each year.

6. Chi Omega Award. Chi Omega sorority, seeking to further the interest of women in the social sciences, presents an award of $25.00 to the girl having the highest average for the year in the field of psychology, sociology, economics, or other courses in the social sciences. The field is selected yearly at the suggestion of the head of the social science division.

7. Pan-Hellenic Award. The Women's Pan-Hellenic Council makes each year a cash award of $25 to the best woman citizen of the college community—to that one whose life and influence have contributed most to the happiness and welfare of the student body.

8. The Charles Betts Galloway Award for the best sermon preached by a ministerial student of Millsaps College is presented on Commencement Sunday. This annual award was established by Mrs. E. H. Galloway and family in honor of the late Bishop Galloway, and is given in the form of a medal.

RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES

Millsaps College, as an institution of the Methodist Church, seeks to be a genuinely Christian college. The faculty is made up of scholars who are Christians striving to fulfill the highest ideals of personal devotion and of community citizenship. The religious life of the college centers around the churches of Jackson and the campus Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. Every inducement is brought to bear upon the students to attend a church and church school of their own denomination. A chapel or assembly of the entire college provides opportunity for worship, inspiration, and business of college-wide concern. Varied programs, including addresses by faculty members, students, and outside speakers of ability are presented at these services.

METHODIST CAMPUS-CHURCH RELATIONS COMMITTEE AND THE MILLSAPS CHRISTIAN COUNCIL

The Christian program of the college is coordinated with the local and general program of the Methodist Church through the Campus-Church Relations Committee. The various religious activities of the college are correlated and unified by the Millsaps Christian Council, composed of representatives of all organized religious groups on the campus. This council sponsors delegations of students to the summer conferences of the church at Lake Junaluska, North Carolina, and to the Methodist State Student Conference. It is the channel for all activities of the Methodist Student Movement at Millsaps.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The College Y. M. C. A. is the recognized channel of student religious activity for men. The association was organized shortly after the college was founded, and has done much to strengthen the spiritual life and influence of the college and its members, and to promote progressive Christian work. Each Monday meetings are held for the presentation and discussion of questions of interest to students. The association shares vitally in the college program for the adjustment of freshmen to the Millsaps community. Delegations of members represent the association at state, regional, and Blue Ridge, N. C., conferences each year.

YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The Y. W. C. A. provides expression for the religious interests of Millsaps women through a program similar to that of the Y. M. C. A. It holds weekly meetings devoted to the religious needs of college women, and cooperates in the orientation of new students in campus life. Representatives of the association participate in all of the conferences of the Y. W. C. A., and the Christian Student Movement.

MINISTERIAL LEAGUE

Students preparing for the Christian ministry may join the Ministerial League, which provides programs appropriate to the needs of students interested in Christian life work. Through its activities, the league provides opportunity for Christian service for its members and contributes much to the religious life of the campus and of the local churches.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

All Baptist students at Millsaps are included in the membership of the Baptist Student Union, which was organized in 1938. The Union carries on a religious program in cooperation with the local Baptist churches, and the BSU Council at its weekly meetings plans an active religious and social program for Baptist students on the campus. The organization attempts to develop a feeling of brotherhood among its members and to induce them to participate in other religious activities on the campus and in the churches.

All Presbyterian students belong to the Westminister League which was organized in 1946. A Methodist Youth Fellowship has recently been organized. All Methodist students are members.

RELIGIOUS EMPHASIS WEEK

The annual Religious Emphasis Week is sponsored by all the religious groups of the campus, functioning through the Millsaps Christian Council. For this week some outstanding religious leader, familiar with student life and problems, addresses the student body and various groups of students and professors, and is available for private conference with individuals. Speakers of recent years have included Bishop W. T. Watkins; Dr. W. A. Smart, of Emory University; Dr. Marshall Steel of Texas; Dr. G. Ray Jordan, of Charlotte, North Carolina; Dr. Roy M. Smith, editor of the Chicago Christian Advocate; and Dr. W. B. Selah, formerly of Oklahoma, now of Galloway Memorial, Jackson, Mississippi.

THE CHRISTIAN CENTER

Mississippi Methodists, alumni, and friends of Millsaps College have done a magnanimous thing in contributing money in the amount of $125,000 for the erection of a Christian Center Memorial Building.

Mr. R. L. Ezelle originated the idea and movement. Mr. John T. Kimball, President of the Alumni Association, gave largely of his time, energy, and experience in making the campaign the success that it was.

The campaign culminated on Millsaps Day, June 11, 1944. On that day the Methodist churches in Mississippi raised approximately $65,000. By Conference time, the fund had reached $100,000, the amount we had hoped to raise. Since Mr. Ezelle and Mr. Kimball gave their time, this campaign cost the college only $3500. The building will be constructed when the government releases the necessary materials.

ATHLETICS

Millsaps College has maintained a consistently high athletic standard, not only in developing teams for intercollegiate competition, but in providing a well rounded program which attempts to bring every student in college into some form of athletic competition.

I. INTRAMURAL ATHLETICS.

In the desire to have a "sports for all" program, the college sponsors intramural activities in: baseball, basketball, boxing, free throwing, touch football, golf, horseshoes, softball, track, tennis, and volley ball.

The Intramural organization is made up of members of each fraternity or independent group on the campus. The program includes both team and individual sports. No credit is given for intramurals, but it is urged that every one take part.

Individual Activities. The athletic department offers its facilities to students and faculty for individual or group use at any time. These facilities include five tennis courts, soft ball fields, football field, running track, obstacle course, boxing and wrestling room, and gymnasium.

Purpose of Millsaps Sports Program:

1. To stimulate better personal strength and health habits through the medical examination and physical exercises.

2. To provide instruction and participation for all in a variety of clean, wholesome sports.

Cups are awarded to championship squads in these activities. In general, the units are based upon residence in dormitories and teams sponsored by social fraternities.

II. ATHLETICS FOR WOMEN.

Women's athletics are encouraged for the reason that when properly regulated they tend to promote both the physical and moral well-being of the students and to foster a wholesome college spirit.

Millsaps does not sponsor inter-collegiate athletics for women. The desire is to have a program in which all girls may participate. The intramural program satisfies this need. The sororities and the Vikings form the teams which compete in these activities, which include archery, ping-pong, volleyball, basketball, softball, golf, and tennis.

Women students are encouraged to participate in athletic activities during their leisure time. The college offers an unlimited number of facilities for their use—the golf course, tennis courts, archery range, the gymnasium, and many other places which may be used at the students' pleasure.

III. ATHLETIC FACILITIES.

(1) A new gymnasium provides a large playing floor for basketball, boxing, volley ball, indoor baseball, and tennis. It has a regulation ring for boxing, mats for gymnastics, dressing rooms for all teams, a room for visiting teams, trainer's room complete with equipment for injuries, a club room for wearers of the "M," and the college store. The gymnasium has become the center of the activities of the students. (2) The football stadium with seating accommodations for five thousand spectators is equipped with lights for night games and also contains a fine 24 ft. quarter mile cinder track. (3) The baseball field is separate from the football stadium and is also used as a freshman football practice field. (4) Five new clay tennis courts have been constructed near the gymnasium and are kept in perfect condition in nine out of the twelve months of the year. (5) A very fine nine hole golf course has been built and is for use by all students.

IV. An intercollegiate athletic program is provided by the college and is conducted on amateur basis. The program includes football, basketball, baseball and track.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The Millsaps Student Association is governed by officers elected by the student body and the student executive board. The president, vice-president, and the secretary-treasurer are elected annually from the student body. Members of the student executive board are chosen by the activities which they represent.

Meetings of the student executive board are held at least once a month, with other meetings called when the president considers them necessary. The Student Association holds its regular meeting during the chapel period every Friday morning. All members of the student body automatically become members of the Student Association.

The duties and functions of the student executive board are to act in the administration of student affairs, to cooperate with the administration in the orientation program of the college, to maintain understanding between students and faculty, and to work for the benefit of the student body and the progress of the college.

THE PURPLE AND WHITE

A working laboratory for students with journalistic inclinations is furnished in The Purple and White, weekly Millsaps student publication. A college newspaper with a reputation which ranks it among the best in the South, The Purple and White affords actual experience in the editorial, business, and advertising phases of a modern news-sheet. Extra-curricular college credit for members of the staff, and the valuable experience it affords, make this activity both profitable and interesting to students.

THE BOBASHELA

The Bobashela is the annual student publication of Millsaps College. It attempts to give a comprehensive view of campus life as enjoyed by the student body and faculty members. The 1946 edition is the fortieth volume of this Millsaps book. Bobashela is a Choctaw Indian name for "good friend."

THE PLAYERS

The dramatic club of the college has as its official name "The Millsaps Players." Under the direction of Dr. M. C. White, the Players put on two or more three-act plays each year, and produce with first year novices six or more one-act plays. The organization is a live one and its productions are highly creditable.

The Players within recent years have greatly added to the facilities for play production: The stage has been enlarged; and a handsome curtain and cylorama, three complete sets of scenery, and complete lighting equipment have been purchased.

THE MILLSAPS SINGERS

The Millsaps Singers, a chorus composed of men and women students under the able direction of Mr. Alvin J. King, is one of the most important organizations on the Millsaps campus.

In addition to numerous appearances in Jackson and towns nearby, the purple-robed chorus takes an extensive trip each year.

Membership is open to freshmen and upper-classmen alike and two semester hours' credit is given for the year's work.

BEETHOVEN CLUB

The Beethoven Club of Millsaps College offers attractive and helpful features in the community life of the musical students. The club brings noted artists to the campus to hold master classes and give concerts. Some of the artists who have been here under the club auspices are Isabel and Silvio Scionti, Rudolph Ganz, and Percy Grainger.

THE BAND

The Millsaps Symphonic Band is open to all students, men and women, who can qualify. The year's repertoire work covers all phases of symphonic music. Two semester hours' credit is given for the year's work.

DEBATING

Since the year the college was founded, debating has occupied an important place in its activities. Millsaps teams participate in about 150 debates each year, meeting teams from the leading institutions in the South and Southwest.

Extra-curricular credit is offered for successful participation in debating, oratory, and extemporaneous public speaking.

THE INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

The International Relations Club of Millsaps College is an endowed honorary organization which recognizes superior work in current history.

Membership is elective.

The club holds bi-monthly meetings at which timely world problems and events are discussed by student and faculty members. Another feature of the club is to sponsor occasional lectures of international interest.

THE VIKINGS AND BARBARIANS

The Vikings Club, organized in 1934, intends that all Millsaps students should have access to social activity. Women students who do not join Greek letter sororities are welcomed by the non-Greek organization. Numerous parties, picnics, and entertainments are given during the year with each member sharing the expenses. The Vikings are well represented in intra-mural sports and other campus activities. We have a similar organization known as Barbarians for men.

HONOR SOCIETIES

ETA SIGMA PHI

Eta Sigma Phi is a national honor fraternity for the stimulation of interest in classical studies, including the history, art, and literature of ancient Greece and Rome. Its forty-six chapters scattered throughout the United States foster a closer relationship among students interested in the classics.

Alpha Phi, the Millsaps chapter, was founded in December, 1935, and has since been an active group on the campus.

PI KAPPA DELTA

The Millsaps chapter of Pi Kappa Delta offers membership to those who have given distinguished service in debating, oratory, or extemporaneous public speaking. The national honorary fraternity, with its one hundred and twenty-nine chapters, performs a valuable service in coordinating the forensic activities of colleges throughout the country.

CHI DELTA

Chi Delta is a local, honorary literary society fostering creative writing among the women students at Millsaps. Membership includes women members of the faculty and student body who are interested in writing.

KIT KAT

Kit Kat is a literary fraternity with a selected membership of men students who have ambition combined with ability to write. Monthly programs consist of original papers given by the members and criticized by the entire group of student and faculty members.

OMICRON DELTA KAPPA

Omicron Delta Kappa is a widely recognized leadership fraternity with chapters in the principal colleges and universities throughout the country. Pi Circle at Millsaps brings together those members of the student body and faculty most interested in campus activities, together with a limited number of alumni and supporters who discuss Millsaps problems, and work for the betterment of the college.

Membership in Omicron Delta Kappa is one of the highest honors a student can attain.

ALPHA EPSILON DELTA

Alpha Epsilon Delta is an honorary pre-medical fraternity, founded at the University of Alabama in 1926. Its purpose is to promote the interests of pre-medical students. Leadership, scholarship, expertness, character, and personality are the qualities by which students are judged for membership. Alpha Epsilon Delta strives to bridge the gap between pre-medical and medical schools and to link the undergraduate with the medical student and the physician.

DELTA KAPPA DELTA

Delta Kappa Delta is an honorary pre-law fraternity. Its purpose is to promote justice, truth, and all the high ideals of law. It recognizes ability and interest in the field of law preparation. It endeavors to serve as the link between pre-law and law training.

ETA SIGMA

Eta Sigma is a local honorary fraternity which recognizes excellence in scholarship. It selects its members from the junior and senior classes. The high standards required for membership in Eta Sigma make it a coveted honor at Millsaps.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

Effective service in "The Millsaps Players" is rewarded by membership in Alpha Psi Omega, the national honorary dramatic fraternity. Students may qualify for the honor fraternity by notable achievement in acting, make up, stage management, business management, and costuming.

SIGMA LAMBDA

Sigma Lambda is a women's leadership sorority organized for the purpose of recognizing outstanding leadership among women at Millsaps. It is a forum for the discussion of questions of interest to the college. Sigma Lambda is composed of a limited number of women students and faculty members.

Sigma Lambda membership is one of the most distinctive honors a woman can receive at Millsaps.

KAPPA DELTA EPSILON

Kappa Delta Epsilon is a professional education sorority the purpose of which is to promote the cause of education. It seeks to foster among its members professional ideals, high standards of scholastic attainment, and a spirit of mutual helpfulness.

THETA NU SIGMA

Theta Nu Sigma is composed of a select group of students especially outstanding in science. With the purpose of furthering general interest in the sciences, membership is offered to second semester sophomores, juniors, and seniors who are majoring in one of the natural sciences and who fulfill certain other qualifications.

FRATERNITIES AND SORORITIES

SOCIAL FRATERNITIES

Four national fraternities: Kappa Alpha, Kappa Sigma, Pi Kappa Alpha, and Lambda Chi Alpha, have chapters on the Millsaps campus. These social clubs maintain houses in which some of their members reside.

During the first week of the school year, each fraternity extends invitations to from ten to twenty new students, bidding them to membership in the organization. The new men are given an opportunity during this "rush" period to become acquainted with fraternities, and at the end of this time bids are extended and the new students are pledged. While pledging is not allowed for the first week of school, a fraternity may extend an invitation to join at any other time during the year.

Initiation of new pledges cannot take place until the student has been at Millsaps for a semester during which he has made at least nine quality points with not more than one grade below D.

SOCIAL SORORITIES

Millsaps College has four national sororities: Phi Mu, Kappa Delta, Beta Sigma Omicron, and Chi Omega.

Formal rushing for new students takes place at the beginning of the fall term and is done according to rules which the sororities have agreed upon. Initiation of new pledges cannot take place until the student has been at Millsaps for a semester during which she has made at least nine quality points with not more than one grade below D. Informal rushing is allowed throughout the year according to the desires of the various groups.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

General Requirements

Millsaps College will accept as members of its student body only young men and women who are well qualified to benefit from the kind of educational experience and academic life offered by the college. All applicants for admission must furnish evidence of

1. Good moral character
2. Sound physical and mental health
3. Adequate scholastic preparation
4. Intellectual maturity

Admission to Freshman Standing

Application for admission to freshman standing may be made according to either of the following plans:

1. By Certificate (When one has earned fifteen or more high school units):

   Graduates of an accredited high school or secondary school may be admitted to freshman standing on presentation of a certificate signed by the proper authorities of that school, showing the kind and amount of scholastic work done, provided that:

   (a) The student's record shows the satisfactory completion of at least fifteen acceptable units of secondary school work.

   (b) One-half of the units of secondary school work accepted for entrance must be in English, mathematics, and social studies or foreign language. These units should normally include three units of English, two units in mathematics, and at least two units of history, other social studies, or foreign language.

   (c) Final acceptance of the student to the regular session is dependent upon the quality of his work in high school and a qualifying examination. The qualifying examination must be taken by all students, freshmen and transfers.

2. By Examination (When one has earned no formal units from high school):

   Students who have not regularly prepared for college in a recognized secondary school may apply for admission by making complete statement regarding qualifications and training. Such students may be regularly admitted if they qualify in a battery of achievement examinations given at the college under the direction of the Department of Education. These examinations are given on the scholastic work covered by the list of secondary units approved by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

   College Entrance Board Examination certificates may be accepted in place of high school certificates or examination by Millsaps College.

FRESHMAN WEEK

Millsaps schedules a "Freshman Week" program each year in order to provide more adequately for the counseling and registration of freshmen. This program provides informal social contacts for the freshmen with each other, with certain committees of upper-class students, and with the faculty. Its chief purpose, however, is to give opportunity for faculty counselors to become acquainted with the freshmen and to give guidance in registration and adjustment to life in the college community. Tests and other personal data are used as background for these counseling activities, which are started during Freshmen Week and are continued through the entire freshman year with the same faculty counselors. Attendance at the Freshman Week program is required of all entering freshmen students.

Transfers

Students intending to transfer to Millsaps should have transcript sent direct to the registrar at least a month before the opening of the semester which they plan to enter. This will avoid fee for late registration.

Sixty-four semester hours' maximum credit will be allowed on work done in state junior colleges approved by the State Junior College Commission. Full credit will be allowed for all academic courses of freshman and sophomore level. Other courses will be allowed full elective credit with the proviso that transfers may be called upon to do extra work necessary to fulfill Millsaps' requirements for majors, pre-professional work, and for high school professional licenses.

Special Student

For admission as a special student, the candidate must present adequate proof of good character and of maturity of training. Such students must in all cases meet the specific entrance requirements, as prescribed for the courses elected by them. But it is expressly ordered that no special student shall be recognized as a candidate for any degree from Millsaps unless he shall have completed all entrance requirements at least one year before the date of graduation.

DEFINITION OF UNIT

The unit in the tabulation on the following page means a subject of study pursued in an academy or high school through a session of nine months with recitations five times a week, an average of forty-five minutes being devoted to each recitation.

ADVANCED STANDING FOR STUDENTS

For sophomore rating	24 hours;	9 quality points
For junior rating	52 hours;	36 quality points
For senior rating	90 hours;	72 quality points
For graduation	128 hours;	120 quality points

Room (except Whitworth $50.00)	37.50
Board (minimum amount)	90.00
Total for each semester	$228.50

CAFETERIA

All boarding students secure their meals in the Galloway cafeteria. This dining room is under expert supervision and furnishes wholesome food at very moderate rates. The food is furnished practically at cost, and there is ample variety from which to select. All students who room on the campus must take their meals in the college cafeteria and are required to buy a minimum of six meal books per semester at $15.00 each or a total of $90.00. The meal books are not transferable.

SPECIAL FEES

In addition to the regular costs listed above, students are charged certain fees per course per semester for special services. These fees apply only to students registering for these particular courses:

Science Fees: Laboratory Charges

Chemistry	$ 6.00
Physics (except 31-32)	6.00
Geology (except 11-12)	6.00
Geology 11-12	1.50
Biology (except 52)	6.00
Astronomy	6.00
Surveying	6.00

Education Fees: Laboratory Charges

Typing, additional fee	1.00

SPECIAL STUDENTS

One academic course	$ 35.00
Two academic courses	60.00
Three academic courses	80.00
Four or more academic courses	Full tuition and fees

Students taking only music or art courses for college credit must pay a registration fee of $5 for each academic course.

For music fees, see p. 79.
For art fees, see p. 55.
For fee for horse back riding, see p. 81.

Late Registration

Fee for late registration	$1.50
Fee for late payment of fees	1.50

Graduation Fee

Diploma, cap, gown, commencement expense	$15.00

Excess Hours

The normal student load is five subjects with either physical education or extra-curricular activities making a maximum of seventeen hours. Students registering for courses in excess of seventeen hours will be charged $5.00 for each additional hour per semester.

Tuition For Non-Resident (Or Out-Of-State) Students

The charge for tuition to non-resident (or out-of-State) students will be at the rate of $8.60 per semester hour.

All customary Fees will be charged to non-resident (or out-of-State) students in addition to the tuition rate of $8.60 per semester hour.

Millsaps College reserves the privilege to change any or all of the charges for tuition, regular fees, and special fees at any time without notice.

FINANCIAL REGULATIONS

The following regulations, adopted by the Finance Committee, are not subject to change, even by the President or Bursar.

PAYMENTS.—All fees are due and payable at the opening of school. Tuition, fees, and room rent should be paid by the semester in advance. Board is strictly cash in advance and is taken care of by the use of $15.00 meal books purchased on the basis of a minimum of six for each semester. A delayed payment fee of $1.50 will be charged on all bills for the semester which are paid later than the date officially set for payment. Students who have not made the required payments within two weeks from the beginning of the semester are subject to dismissal from classes.

All accounts due for any preceding semester must be paid before a student will be enrolled from the next semester. The Registrar is not permitted to transfer credits until all outstanding indebtedness to the college is paid in the Bursar' office.

No student will be allowed to graduate unless he shall have settled, one month before commencement, with the Bursar's office all his indebtedness to the college including graduation fee of $15.00.

VETERANS' PAYMENTS—Veterans attending school under the G. I. Bill of Rights will be called upon to pay only the fees for room rent and board for each semester, all other expenses being borne directly by the Federal Government.

Rules applicable to other students relative to payment of room rent and board will be observed by all veterans. Room rent is payable in advance at the opening of the semester. Board is strictly cash in advance and is taken care of by the use of $15.00 meal books purchased on the basis of a minimum of six for each semester.

CHANGE OF SCHEDULE.—No reduction in fees or tuition will be allowed for any course dropped after two weeks from the date of registration in it.

STUDENTS ROOMING IN FRATERNITY HOUSES.—All students rooming in fraternity houses are required to eat in the college cafeteria. Rules regarding payment of board applicable to other students will be observed by the students rooming in fraternity houses. That is, board is strictly cash in advance and is taken care of by the use of $15.00 meal books purchased on the basis of a minimum of six for each semester.

MEAL BOOKS ARE NOT TRANSFERABLE.

REFUNDS.—If a student matriculates and for a good reason is not able to attend classes, all fees and tuition will be refunded except a matriculation or reservation fee of $10.00. But if a student attends classes and withdraws within 5 days from the date of his registration, refunds will be made at the rate of four-fifths of the charges for fees and tuition. No refund will be made for room rent after the semester has begun, and board will be charged pro rata to the date of withdrawal.

No reduction or refund of charges will be made for withdrawal from college after 5 days from the date of the student's registration except for protracted illness of the student certified by a physician as a disability. The adjustment in such cases will be made for tuition and board, but not for fees or room rent. No refund will be made on fees, as allocations will have been made at the expiration of 5 days to the different organizations participating in the college program. Rooms are not rented for less than one semester, and no refund will be made for dormitory rooms vacated after the beginning of a semester. Payments for board are refunded for the unexpired time, except that no refund will be made for a portion of a week. If a student remains in college more than five days but less than five weeks, he will be required to pay the college one-half of the tuition applying to that semester. If a student remains in college as much as five weeks of any semester, he will be required to pay all charges for tuition for the entire semester.

The date of withdrawal from which all claims to reductions and refunds will be referred is the date on which the Registrar is officially notified by the student of his intention to withdraw from college. (See regulations relative to withdrawals).

PURPOSE AND DISTRIBUTION OF THE STUDENT ACTIVITIES FEE

The student activities fee of $3.00 paid by a student at the beginning of each semester is distributed among the different organizations existing in the campus. The distribution of this fee is at the suggestion of the Student Executive Board.

The student activities fee is distributed among organizations such as the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., The Student Association, Debate Clubs, Band, Glee Club, Dramatics, Purple & White, Bobashela, Toppers, and The Woman's Association. That part of the fee assigned the Bobashela is in payment for the student year book. This enables all students paying regular fees to secure a year book. The portion designated for The Purple & White gives each student a year's subscription to the college weekly paper.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION FEE

Establishment of a carefully planned and effectively administered physical education program has now been effected by the college. In return for a physical education fee of $4.50 per semester the student receives the advantages afforded by the gymnasium as well as the supervision of a highly trained physical education instructor, who will plan a complete program of intramural athletics. Each student will also receive locker and towel service without additional charge.

TEACHER PLACEMENT BUREAU

A teacher placement bureau for teachers is maintained under the direction of the Department of Education. It seeks to further the interests of teachers trained at Millsaps College and to be of service to school officials who wish to secure efficient teachers.

DIVISIONAL GROUPINGS

Courses are arranged in three groups as follows:

Humanities—

Languages, Fine Arts, Philosophy

Natural Science—

Mathematics, Biology, Chemistry, Physics, Psychology, Geology, Astronomy.

Social Science—

Sociology, Government, History, Religion, Psychology, Economics, Education.

EXTRA CURRICULAR CREDITS

The following extra curricular activities to a maximum of eight semester hours may be included in the 128 semester hours required for graduation:

Physical Training (Required)	2
Physical Training (Elective)	6
Purple & White Editor	4
Purple & White Bus. Mgr.	4
Purple & White Dept. Editors (four)	6
Purple & White Reporters (four)	6
Bobashela Editor	4
Bobashela Business Manager	4
Players	6
Millsaps Singers	6
Debate	6
Typewriting	4
Shorthand	6

(Only one semester hour may be earned in each semester, except by editor and business manager of the Purple & White and the Bobashela or in shorthand courses.)

MAJORS

In addition to taking the prescribed work for the degree, the student must major in one of the following departments:

Biology.—A student majoring in Biology should take 11-12, 21-22 and 42 and elect any other courses.

Chemistry.—Required courses for a major in Chemistry are Chemistry 21-22, 31-32, 41, 61, and 71. Majors are advised to take both differential and integral calculus.

Economics.—An Economics major is required to take Economics 21-22, 31-32, and at least twelve additional semester hours in the department. Courses in shorthand and typewriting are not counted toward fulfillment of this requirement.

English.—An English major is required to take English 11-12 and 21-22. In addition the student must take twelve semester hours from the following group of courses: English 31-32, 41-42, 61-62, 71-72, 81-82, 91-92, 101-102.

French and Spanish.—For students majoring in either of these subjects no one course is required with more emphasis than the others. Such students are urged to take every course in their major subject which they can include in their schedules.

Geology.—To major in Geology a student must take Geology 11-12, 31-32, and 51 and 9 semester hours selected from Geology 21-22, 41-42 and Geology 52.

History.—Any four courses in this department will be accepted for a major in History.

Latin.—To major in Latin a student is required to take Latin 11-12, 21-22, 31-32 or 41-42, 52, and either 61 or 62.

Mathematics.—For a major, Mathematics 11-12, 21-22, and 31-32, are required; nine semester hours selected from the other courses given in the department must also be taken. An additional six hours is strongly recommended.

Music.—See listings under the Dept. of Music.

Physics and Astronomy.—Students majoring in these two subjects are required to take Physics 11-12 and Astronomy 11-12 and additional work in other courses to make a total of twenty-four hours.

Political Science Major.—Students majoring in Political Science are required to take 24 hours in that field including Government 21 and 22.

Psychology.—Students majoring in Psychology are required to earn a total of 24 hours in this field, including 11-12, 21-22. Courses in Zoology, Physics, and Statistics are strongly recommended for Psychology majors.

Religion.—Majors in Religion are required to take Religion 31 and 41 in addition to the course in Religion 11-12 which all students must take. Other courses are elective with the student, up to the required number. Ministerial students follow pre-theological course.

Sociology.—Majors in Sociology are required to take Sociology 11-12, Sociology 101, and fifteen additional hours in the department.

MINORS

In addition to the requirement that a student must take twenty-four semester hours in one subject, he will be required to take twelve additional hours within the same group of subjects. The dean may waive this requirement for any student.

COMPREHENSIVE EXAMINATIONS

Before receiving a bachelor's degree the student must pass a satisfactory comprehensive examination in his major field of study. This examination is given in the senior year and is intended to cover subject matter greater in scope than a single course or series of courses. The purpose of the comprehensive examination is to coordinate the class work with independent reading and thinking in such a way as to relate the knowledge acquired and give the student a general understanding of the field which could not be acquired from individual courses.

The major field must be chosen by the student at the opening of his junior year. The consent of the professor in charge is required before a student is allowed to major in a department. At least twenty-four semester hours' credit must be taken in the department in which the student is majoring. Juniors and seniors meet with their major professors for conferences at least once a week. The examination requires at least three hours and is both written and oral.

The time of the comprehensive examinations is to be set each year by the faculty.

GENERAL REGULATIONS

CLASS ATTENDANCE

If a student is absent seven times in a three-hour course, or a proportionate number in a course giving other credit, then all credit in that course is lost and the entire course must be repeated. In case all absences are due to illness, vouched for by a physician, a student may request permission to continue the course. In case of loss of credit because of excessive absence, three quality points will be deducted from the total already earned. No class absences are excused.

Absence from examinations will not be excused except for sickness on day of examination (attested by a physician's certificate), or other cause which the faculty by special order may approve. An unexcused absence is counted as a total failure in the examination in which it occurs. A student whose absence from examination is excused is admitted to a special examination ordered by the faculty.

Absences from class on college business under the supervision of an authorized instructor shall not be counted against the student on loss of credit.

Such absences shall be reported to the Dean of the college. This report must be made in writing, previous to the absence.

CHAPEL ATTENDANCE

Attendance upon chapel is required of all students one day each week. All freshmen are required to attend chapel on one additional day during the first semester. More than two absences from chapel will result in action from Advisory Committee of the faculty.

GRADING SYSTEM

All marks are made on a six-point letter scale. "A" represents superior work, largely of a creative nature and in addition to the regularly prescribed work of the class. "B" represents above the average achievement in the regularly prescribed work. "C" represents the average achievement of the class in the regularly prescribed work. "D" represents a level of achievement in the regularly prescribed work of the class below the average in the same relationship as the grade of "B" is above the average. "E" represents a condition and may be changed to a "D" if the grade in the other semester of the course is "C" or above. "F" represents failure to do the regularly prescribed work of the class. All marks of "D" and above are passing marks and "F" represents failure.

The following are semester unit courses. First semester grades cannot be averaged with those of the second.

Biology 41, 42, 51, 52, 61, 62, 71, 72, 82, 92.

Economics 41, 42, 51, 52, 61, 62, 71, 72, 91, 92.

Education, all courses.

English 41, 42, 51, 52, 71, 72, 91, 92, 101, 102.

Greek 11, 12.

Latin 31, 32, 41, 42, 51, 61, 62.

Mathematics, all courses.

Physics 61, 62.

Psychology, all courses except 11-12.

Religion, all courses.

QUALITY POINTS

A student who makes a grade of "D" in a subject will be advanced in that subject, but a certain number of quality points is requisite for advancement from one class to the next higher class. The student must have nine quality points to be classed as a sophomore, 36 to be classed as a junior, 72 to be classed as a senior, and 120 for graduation. The completion of any college course with a grade of "C" for one semester shall entitle a student to one quality point for each semester hour, the completion of a course with a grade of "B" for the semester shall entitle a student to two quality points for each semester hour, and the completion of a course with the grade of "A" for the semester shall entitle a student to three quality points per semester hour.

RELATIVE VALUE OF CLASS-WORK AND WRITTEN EXAMINATIONS

The grade of the student in any class, either for a semester or for the session, is determined by the combined class standing and the result of a written examination. The examination grade shall be counted as approximately one-third of the grade for the semester. If the combined grade is below "D" the student is required to repeat the course, except in courses where the grades for the two semesters may be averaged.

HOURS PERMITTED

Fifteen academic semester hours is considered the normal load per semester.

No student may take more than seventeen semester hours of academic work unless he has a quality index of 1.5 on the latest previous college term or semester. No student may take more than nineteen semester hours of academic work unless he has a quality point index of 2. on the latest previous college term or semester, and obtains permission from the Dean.

Any student who is permitted to take more than seventeen semester hours of work will be required to pay at the rate of $5.00 for each additional semester hour over seventeen.

HONORS

In determining honors and high honors, and all other awards based on scholarship, a quality index is arrived at by dividing the number of quality points by the number of semester hours taken.

A student whose quality point index is 2.0 for his entire course shall be graduated with Honors; one whose quality point index is 2.7 and who has a rating of excellent on comprehensive examination shall be graduated with High Honors.

To be eligible for "honors" or "high honors," a student must have passed at least sixty semester hours in Millsaps College. Honors or high honors may be refused a student who, in the judgment of the faculty, has forfeited his right.

DEAN'S HONOR LIST

I. Requirements:

1. Scholastic:

(a) The student must carry not less than four literary subjects during the semester on which the scholastic average is based;

(b) A quality point average for the preceding semester of 2.00;

(c) No mark lower than a D.

2. Conduct:

The student shall be, in the judgment of the deans, a good citizen of the college community.

II. Eligibility: Seniors and Juniors who have been in residence at least one semester and Sophomores their second semester.

CONDUCT

The rules of the college require from every student decorous, sober, and upright conduct as long as he remains a member of the college, whether he be within its precincts or not.

Regulations governing the conduct of students are found in the handbook. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with the regulations.

DELINQUENCY

To remain in college a freshman must pass in the first semester at least two subjects and have a grade of "E" in a third. After the first half of the freshman year a student must pass at least three subjects a semester to continue in college. The respective deans may exercise their discretion in the enforcement of this regulation.

REPORTS

Reports are sent at the close of each nine weeks to the parent or guardian of each student. These reports give the number of absences from lectures and indicate, as nearly as practicable, the nature of the progress made by him in his work at the college.

WITHDRAWALS

A student desiring to withdraw from college within any term must procure permission from the Dean of the college. A withdrawal card shall be filled out and must be approved by the Dean and the Registrar. No refund will be considered unless this written notice is procured and presented to the Bursar's office.

Refunds upon withdrawal will be made only as outlined elsewhere in this catalog under the heading of "Financial Regulations."

Enforced withdrawal is inflicted by the faculty for habitual delinquency in class, habitual idleness, or any other fault which prevents the student from fulfilling the purpose for which he should have come to college.

The college reserves the right to cancel the registration of any student at any time. In such a case, the pro rata portion of tuition will be returned, except that students withdrawing under discipline forfeit the right to a refund for any charges.

No student who withdraws from college for whatever reason is entitled to a report card or to a transcript of credits until he shall have settled his account in the Bursar's office.

REGISTRATION

Applicants seeking admission to the college for the first time should present themselves to the registrar of the college promptly at 9:00 o'clock on the opening day. In each instance a certificate of good moral character, signed by the proper official of the institution attended during the previous session, must be sent to the Registrar at least two weeks before the opening of the session. Each candidate who satisfies these requirements and those for admission by certificate or examination will be furnished with a card containing the courses offered. From these he must take the required courses and those electives which he proposes to pursue during the session. The card must then be carried to the bursar, who will, after the college fees have been paid to him, sign the card. Registration is incomplete unless the registration card is signed by both the registrar and the bursar.

CHANGE OF REGISTRATION

Students cannot change classes or drop classes or take up new classes except by the consent of the dean of the faculty and of all faculty members concerned. Courses dropped after the middle of a semester shall be recorded as failures.

I DEPARTMENT OF ANCIENT LANGUAGES

PROFESSOR HAMILTON ASSISTANT PROFESSOR COULLET

The ideas and culture of Greece and Rome live on today in their contributions to the culture of Western Civilization. Intimate contact with the very words which express the aspirations of those great spirits whose influence has been so abiding and formative in the modern world should help shape the student's character to fine and worthy purposes. Furthermore, this undertaking affords a most rigorous exercise in the scientific method, producing habits and reflexes of accuracy, efficiency, and system.

LATIN

A-1, A-2. Elementary Latin.—Designed for students who have undertaken no previous study of the language. Mastery of declensions and conjugations, of syntax and sentence structure; familiarity with the Latin thought order and the technique of translation. A large amount of easy reading is required. Vocabulary is enlarged and sight reading is practiced during the second semester. Six hours credit. Mrs. Coullet.

11, 12. Intermeidate Latin.—Continual review of forms, syntax, and sentence structure, as well as their application. Enlargement of the vocabulary. Translation and sight reading of a large amount of material. —including selections from Caesar and Cicero. Six hours credit. Mrs. Coullet.

21. Vergil.—Translation of part of the Aenied. This course is for students who have had three years of high school Latin. Three hours credit. Dr. Hamilton.

22. Horace, Odes and Epodes.—This course is designed to give the student an appreciation of the place occupied by the poet not only in his own environment and age but through the centuries, and to create an intelligent appreciation of his poetry. Three hours credit, second semester. Dr. Hamilton.

31. Pliny.—Translation of selected letters of Pliny the younger with related outside readings. Three hours credit, first semester. Mrs. Coullet and Dr. Hamilton. Offered in 1947-48.

32. Plautus.—The student is introduced to Roman comedy and its Greek background. Wide reading in this period of literature is required. Two plays of Plautus are read in the Latin and several in translation. Three hours credit, second semester. Dr. Hamilton, Mrs. Coullet.

41 or 42. Classical Archaeology.—This course attempts to visualize ancient classical civilization and may be elected by those who are not taking formal courses in Latin and Greek translation. It consists of lectures and outside reading supplemented by lantern slides. Two hours credit, second semester. Dr. Hamilton. Offered in 1947-48.

51. Roman Private Life.—A course of study designed to familiarize students with the every day life and habits of the Romans. Given in alternate years. Three hours credit, first semester. Mrs. Coullet.

52. Mythology.—A study of the ancient myths of Greece and Rome and their influence on later literature. Given in alternate years. Three hours credit, second semester. Mrs. Coullet. Offered in 1947-48.

61-62. Greek and Roman Literature.—The reading in English translations of the great works of ancient literature. Three hours credit for each semester. Dr. Hamilton. Offered in 1947-48.

GREEK

A-1, A-2. Introduction to Greek.—Attention is paid to the thorough mastery of forms, vocabulary, and syntax, but emphasis is laid also upon the great contributions made by the Greeks to Western civilization in the fields of art, literature, and philosophy. The course may be counted as an elective, or it may be used to satisfy the entrance requirements in foreign languages. Six hours credit. Dr. Hamilton.

11-12. Xenophon's Anabasis.—Two books of the Anabasis are covered during each semester. Selections from the Greek New Testament are sometimes read in this course. Three hours credit, second semester. Dr. Hamilton.

21-22. Plato.—The Apology, Crito, Phaedo and parts of the Symposium and Xenophon's Memorabilia are covered in the two semesters. Dr. Hamilton. Offered in 1947-48.

31-32. Greek New Testament.—Offered in alternate years. 6 hours credit. Dr. Hamilton. Offered in 1948-49.

II DEPARTMENT OF ART*

PROFESSOR WOLFE

11-12. Design, Color Theory, Water Color, and Composition.—Individual criticism. Two hours a week. Special fee, per course semester, $30.

21-22. Figure Drawing.—Group and individual instruction and criticism. Two hours a week. Special fee, per course semester, $30.

*Twelve hours of Art may be counted toward a degree.

See page 37 for registration fees.

Millsaps College reserves the privilege to change any or all of the charges for tuition, regular fees, and special fees at any time without notice.

III DEPARTMENT OF BIOLOGY

PROFESSOR RIECKEN PROFESSOR STURDIVANT

11-12. A Survey of the Plant Kingdom.—Structure and physiology of seed plants, life cycles, and development of lower forms. The fundamental principles underlying all life phenomena are stressed. Two recitations and one two-hour laboratory a week. Six hours credit. Dr. Riecken. Each semester.

21-22. A Survey of the Animal Kingdom.—Invertebrate and vertebrate animal structure and physiology. The fundamental principles of life phenomena are stressed. Two recitations and one two-hour laboratory a week. Six hours credit. Dr. Sturdivant. Each semester.

31-32. Vertebrate Anatomy.—For pre-medical students and biology majors. This course must be taken with 21-22. Special emphasis on dissection of vertebrate forms. One two-hour laboratory a week. Two hours credit. Dr. Sturdivant. Each semester.

41. Elementary Bacteriology.—Preparation of media, culture methods, sterilization, isolation, staining, and identification of microorganisms. Prerequisite: Biology 11-12 or 21-22. One lecture and one four-hour laboratory a week. Three hours credit. Dr. Riecken.

42. Comparative Anatomy.—A comparative study of vertebrate structures. Prerequisite: Biology 21-22. One lecture and one four-hour laboratory a week. Three hours credit. Dr. Sturdivant.

51. Histology and Microtechnique.—Study and preparation of temporary and permanent microscopic sections of plant and animal tissues. Prerequisite: Biology 11-12 or 21-22. Given in alternate years. One lecture and one four-hour laboratory a week. Three hours credit. Dr. Sturdivant.

52. Genetics.—Principles of inheritance in plants and animals. Prerequisite: Biology 11-12 or 21-22. Given in alternate years. Three lectures a week. Three hours credit. Dr. Riecken.

61. Embryology.—Development of vertebrates in embryo. One lecture and one four-hour laboratory a week. Prerequisite: Biology 21-22 and 42. Given in alternate years. Three hours credit. Dr. Sturdivant.

62. Physiology and Clinical Laboratory Methods.—Physiological processes of the cell and functions of the organs in vertebrates. Laboratory includes clinical laboratory practice in blood, urine, milk, and water analysis. Prerequisites: Biology 21-22 and preferably 41. Two lectures and four hours of laboratory. Four hours credit. Dr. Sturdivant.

71-72. Special Problems.—Three hours credit for each. Dr. Riecken, Dr. Sturdivant.

82. Toxonomy.—Laboratory and field classification of the plants with herbarium methods. Prerequisite: Biology 11. Dr. Riecken.

102. Hygiene.—One lecture a week. One hour credit each semester. Dr. Riecken.

IV DEPARTMENT OF CHEMISTRY

EMERITUS PROFESSOR SULLIVAN, PROFESSOR PRICE, PROFESSOR PRIDDY

21-22. Inorganic Chemistry.—Fundamental principles of general inorganic chemistry and applications; nonmetallic elements and their principal compounds. Introduction to organic chemistry; chemistry of metals; introduction to qualitative analyses. Three lecture recitations and one laboratory period per week through both semesters. Eight semester hours. Dr. Price and Dr. Priddy.

31-32. Organic Chemistry.—Aliphatic compounds; methods of organic analysis; and determination of formula. Aromatic compounds; and introduction to physiological chemistry. Prerequisite Chemistry 21-22. Three lecture-recitation periods, and two laboratory periods per week through both semesters. Ten semester hours. Dr. Price.

41. Qualitative Analysis.—The theory and practice of inorganic qualitative analysis according to semi-micro methods. Mass action law, chemical equilibrium, solubility product principle, and modern theory of electrolytes. Prerequisite: Chemistry 21-22. Two lecture-recitation periods, and two laboratory periods per week. Four semester hours. Dr. Price or Dr. Priddy.

42. Advanced Qualitative Analysis.—Special topics not covered in the usual qualitative analysis course. Analysis of commercial products. Special instrumental methods of analysis. Prerequisite: Chemistry 41. Two lecture-recitation periods and two laboratory periods per week. Four semester hours. Dr. Price.

61. Physical Chemistry—A one semester introductory course designed to meet the needs of pre-medical students. Required of all majors. Gas Laws, Properties of Liquids, Properties of Solutions, Chemical Kinetics, Catalysis, and Colloidal Solutions. Three lecture-recitation periods and one laboratory period per week. Four semester hours credit. Dr. Price.

62. Physical Chemistry—A one semester advanced course designed to meet the needs of majors who plan to go to graduate school. Atomic Structure, Thermodynamics, Thermochemistry, Equilibrium, Phase Rule, and Electrochemistry. Prerequisite: Chemistry 61 and Calculus. Three lecture-recitation periods, and two laboratory periods per week. Five semester hours. Dr. Price.

71. Quantitative Analysis.—Theory and practice of inorganic quantitative analysis. Gravimetric and volumetric methods with unknowns in acidimetry and alkalimetry; oxidation and reduction; iodimetry; and precipitation methods. Prerequisite: Chemistry 21-22. Two lecture-recitation periods, and two laboratory periods per week. Four semester hours. Dr. Price or Dr. Priddy.

72. Advanced Quantitative Analysis.—Analysis of water, fuels, and commercial products. Properties of engineering materials. Prerequisite: Chemistry 71. Two lecture recitation periods, and two laboratory periods per week. Four semester hours. Dr. Price or Dr. Priddy.

91. Organic Qualitative Analysis.—Identification of organic compounds and mixtures of organic compounds. Prerequisite: Chemistry 31-32. Two lecture-recitation periods and two laboratory periods per week. Four semester hours. Dr. Price.

101-102. Special Problems.—Three hours credit for each. Dr. Price and Dr. Priddy.

V DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS

PROFESSOR WALLACE INSTRUCTOR HOLLOWAY

MR. BLALOCK

21-22. Economic Principles and Problems.—This is the introductory course, designed to provide a general survey of the subject for those who take but one course in the field and to prepare others for advanced courses. Throughout the year. Six hours credit. Dr. Wallace.

31-32. Introduction to Accounting.—A lecture and laboratory course suitable for both the general student of economics and business and the student who expects to do advanced work in accounting. Students will not be admitted to the second half without credit for the first. Required for a major in Economics. Prerequisite or corequisite, Economics 21-22. Six hours credit. Dr. Wallace.

41. Personal Finance.—A non-technical course consisting of a study of the problems which every individual must face in managing his personal income: budgeting; record keeping; savings and investments; life insurance; home ownership; installment buying and other forms of consumer credit; sources of information and protection in connection with the selection and purchase of commodities. No prerequisite. First semester. Three hours credit. Dr. Wallace.

42. Economic Geography.—A survey course covering the distribution of basic resources throughout the world, with special attention to population, minerals, plants, animals, climate, physiography, international trade, and causes of international conflict. No prerequisite. Second semester. Three hours credit. Dr. Wallace.

51. Business Law.—This course is designed to acquaint students with the basic legal problems with which nearly every individual must at some time come in contact, to equip them to take elementary measures for protection of their legal rights in order to prevent litigation from arising, and to enable them to recognize situations in which the advice of an attorney is necessary. Topics covered include contracts, bailments, sales, and personal property. Prerequisite or corequisite, Economics 21-22. First semester. Three hours credit. Mr. Blalock.

52. Business Law.—A continuation of Economics 51. Topics covered include agency, negotiable instruments, real property, partnerships, and corporations. Prerequisite, Economics 51. Second semester. Three hours credit. Dr. Wallace.

61. Money, Banking, and Credit.—A study of the financial organization of our economic system, with emphasis on the part played by commercial, investment, and consumer credit in the production as well as the exchange of goods. Prerequisite, Economics 21-22. First semester. Three hours credit. Dr. Wallace.

62. Business Finance.—A comparison of individual proprietorships, partnerships, and corporations, and of the different types of corporate securities, with major emphasis on methods of providing fixed and working capital for promotion, operation, and expansion of corporations. Prerequisite, Economics 21. Second semester. Three hours credit. Dr. Wallace.

71. Mathematics of Finance.—Same as Mathematics 71.

72. Statistics.—Same as Mathematics 72.

101-102. Advanced Economic Theory and History of Economic Thought.—A course designed particularly for seniors who are majoring in Economics. It deals particularly with the theories of value and distribution, tracing the development of these and other theories through the writings of oustanding economists of modern times. Prerequisite, average of B or better in Economics 21-22 or consent of instructor. Throughout the year. Four hours credit. Offered in alternate years. Dr. Wallace.

SECRETARIAL STUDIES

(Extra Curricular)

11-12. Beginning Typewriting.—Development of basic techniques for control of the keyboard and machine parts. Some familiarity with office forms and office procedures is also acquired. Throughout the year. Machine rental and additional fee, $6.00 per semester. Two hours credit. Mrs. Holloway.

21-22. Advanced Typewriting.—Continued development in office forms and office practice. Greater speed and accuracy in use of the keyboard and machine parts are developed. Prerequisite, course 11-12 or its equivalent. Throughout the year. Machine rental and additional fee, $6.00 per semester. Two hours credit. Mrs. Holloway.

31-32. Introduction to Shorthand.—The functional method is used in developing the fundamental principles of shorthand. Emphasis is placed at first on reading shorthand; dictation is introduced later, and both methods of learning are stressed. Prerequisites or corequisite, course 11-12 or its equivalent. Students will not be admitted to the second half of the course without credit for the first, nor given credit for the first without the second. Throughout the year. Four hours credit. Mrs. Holloway.

41-42. Advanced Shorthand.—A continuous review of the fundamental principles is provided, and a larger vocabulary and greater speed in dictation and transcription are acquired. Prerequisite, course 31-32 or its equivalent. Students will not be admitted to the second half of the course without credit for the first, nor given credit for the first without the second. Throughout the year. Four hours credit. Mrs. Holloway.

VI DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

PROFESSOR HAYNES DR. MUSGRAVE

The Department of Education welcomes capable students who contemplate teaching. Those who do not intend to teach are advised not to attempt the technical courses in education. Students should consult the department head before enrolling in any course. An attempt is made to furnish definite guidance to prospective teachers concerning the courses in education that will best prepare them for their work.

Courses in education are not open to freshmen. Professional training is offered in both the secondary and elementary fields and is designed to meet all requirements for the Professional Certificates As and Ae. The courses offered in this department are approved by the State Department of Education.

21. Tests and Measurements.—A study of the nature and functions of educational and psychological measuring instruments. Additional fee, one dollar and fifty cents. Prerequisite, Psychology 11-12. First semester. Dr. Musgrave.

22. Educational Psychology.—A study of the applications of psychology to problems of teaching and learning. Additional fee, fifty cents. Prerequisite, Psychology 11-12. Second semester. Dr. Musgrave.

31-32. General Methods of Teaching in High School.—This course is designed to introduce the student to the fundamental principles of learning and teaching. Prerequisite: Psychology 11-12. Three hours credit. First and second semesters. Mr. Haynes.

41-42. Directed Observation and Practice Teaching in the High School.—This course consists of directed observation, discussion of observation, planning and teaching. Prerequisite: "C" average and Education 21 or 22, 31 or 32. Four hours credit for either semester. Mr. Haynes.

51. Materials and Methods of Teaching English.—Three hours credit. First semester. Mrs. Goodman.

52. Materials and Methods of Teaching Modern Languages. — Three hours credit. Second semester. Given in alternate years. Miss Craig.

61. Materials and Methods of Teaching Latin.—Three hours credit. First semester. Mrs. Coullet.

62. Materials and Methods of Teaching Mathematics.—Three hours credit. Second semester. Dr. Mitchell.

71. Materials and Methods of Teaching Science.—Three hours credit. First semester. Dr. Riecken.

72. Materials and Methods of Teaching the Social Sciences.—Three hours credit. Second semester. Mr. Haynes.

81-82. Principles of Secondary Education.—This course is designed to orient those students who are planning to teach in the field of secondary education to certain principles and problems of our modern high schools. Pre-requisite, Psychology 11 and 12. Three hours credit. First and second semesters. Mr. Haynes.

91. General Methods of Teaching in the Elementary School.—This course is designed to orient those students who are planning to teach in the elementary field to certain principles and problems of our elementary schools. Prerequisite: Psychology 11-12. Three hours credit. First semester. Mr. Haynes.

92. Special Methods of Teaching in the Elementary School.—This course includes study of the subject matter and methods of instruction in the elementary school. Prerequisite: Psychology 11-12. Three hours credit. Second semester. Mr. Haynes.

101-102. Directed Observation and Practice Teaching in the Elementary School.—This course consists of directed observation, discussion of observation, planning and teaching. Prerequisite: "C" average and Education 91-92. Four hours credit for work through both semesters. Mr. Haynes.

VII DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

PROFESSOR WHITE ASSISTANT PROFESSOR STONE
ASSISTANT PROFESSOR GOODMAN
ASSISTANT PROFESSOR HARDIN MRS. SANDERS

11. Composition.—The first semester is concentrated study of fundamentals of composition, weekly themes, and analysis of prose. Intensive reading and methods of study are stressed. Three hours credit, first semester. Mrs. Stone, Mrs. Goodman, Mr. Hardin, Mrs. Sanders.

12. Composition.—The second semester is a continuation of the work of the first semester involving preparation of a term paper. Selections from literature are studied and analyzed. Three hours credit, second semester. Mrs. Stone, Mrs. Goodman, Mr. Hardin, Mrs. Sanders.

21. English Literature.—A survey of English literature from the beginnings to the eighteenth century. The course attempts a study of the literature itself and of its historical development. Three hours credit, first semester. Dr. White, Mrs. Stone, Mrs. Goodman, Mrs. Sanders.

22. English Literature.—A continuation of the study of English literature from the eighteenth century through the nineteenth. Three hours credit, second semester. Dr. White, Mrs. Stone, Mrs. Goodman, Mrs. Sanders.

31. Shakespeare.—An intensive study of Macbeth, Hamlet, and Henry IV, part one. Lectures on the plays. Careful attention to Shakespearean diction, constructions, and customs. Ten of Shakespeare's plays are required as parallel reading during the semester. Three hours credit, first semester. Dr. White.

32. Shakespeare.—An intensive study of King Lear, Othello, and the Winter's Tale. A life of Shakespeare and ten more of his plays are required as parallel reading. Three hours credit, second semester. Dr. White.

41. English Romantic Poets.—A study of the poetry and the prose of the great Romantic poets. Extensive library readings and a term paper on a special topic are required. Three hours credit, first semester. Dr. White.

42. Tennyson, Browning, and Arnold.—A study of the poetry and prose of the great Victorian poets. Library readings and papers are required. Three hours credit, second semester. Dr. White.

51. Journalism.—A fundamental course in news reporting, with practice in writing various types of news stories. To be taken as the foundation for more advanced work in journalism. Three hours credit. Dr. White.

52. Advanced Composition.—During the second semester the student will have much practice in the writing of feature stories, editorials, book reviews, familiar essays, and short stories. Three hours credit, second semester. Dr. White.

61. The Writing of Verse.—The purpose of this course is to interpret the qualities of English poetry, its metric and stanzaic forms, and to guide the student in experimental writing of verse. Three hours credit, first semester. Dr. White.

62. Recent Southern Fiction.—A reading course in twentieth century Southern fiction, with some study of types, movements, and authors. Three hours credit, second semester. Dr. White.

71. A Survey of English Drama.—An account of the origin and development of English drama is attempted in lectures. Forty or more dramas are required for rapid reading or for study. These dramas are typical of all ages of English dramatic history from the earliest mystery plays to the drama of the twentieth century. Three hours credit, first semester. Dr. White.

72. Modern Drama.—A study of contemporary British, American, and continental drama. Approximately fifty plays are assigned for reading. Three hours credit, second semester. Dr. White.

81. American Literature.—A survey of American literature from the early seventeenth century through the nineteenth century. Historical background presented as an aid to the understanding of American intellectual development. Emphasis on major movements and major authors. Elective for all students. Three hours credit, first semester. Mrs. Goodman.

82. American Literature.—A survey of American literature in the twentieth century, with emphasis on developments and trends in the fields of poetry, prose fiction, and serious prose. Elective for all students. Three hours credit, second semester. Mrs. Goodman.

91. The Victorian Novel.—Readings in the major and minor novelists of the Victorian era. Written reports. Lectures on types, movements, and authors. Elective for all students. Two hours credit, first semester. Dr. White.

92. Short Story Analysis.—Study of roots of fiction and a few early tales. Emphasis on modern stories. Second semester. Mrs. Goodman.

111. Literature of the Western World.—A chronological study of the literature of the Western World, by moods. Classicism, Romanticism, and Realism are considered in turn. Three hours. Dr. White.

121. Modern American and British Poetry.—A survey of British and American poetry since 1900. Elective for all students. Three hours credit. First semester. Mrs. Stone.

VIII THE DEPARTMENT OF GEOLOGY

PROFESSOR SULLIVAN

PROFESSOR PRIDDY

11. Lithologic and Dynamic Geology.—This course includes a brief study of rocks as well as the study of the mechanical and chemical effects of the atmosphere, water, heat, and life. Special attention will be given to such phases of the subject as the work of glaciers and volcanoes. Three hours credit. (Two hours lecture and two hours laboratory). First semester. Dr. Sullivan.

12. Historical Geology.—In addition to general historical geology, some attention will be given to economic products and to paleontology. Several geological expeditions, regularly made in the fall and spring to localities easily accessible to Jackson give the class a practical conception of this kind of surveying. The college is fortunate in being located in the midst of a region that is quite varied in geological character. Several field trips are usually taken each semester. Prerequisite: Geology 11. Three hours credit. (Two hours lecture and two hours laboratory). Second semester. Dr. Sullivan.

21. Mineralogy.—The purpose of this course is to classify the common minerals and rocks and to study their modes of occurrence and economic uses. Students will classify hand specimens by crystal structure, hardness, cleavage, color, luster, and specific gravity. Blowpipe analyses will give an idea of the chemical content of the common minerals. The course is an interesting elective for chemistry, physics, and mathematics majors. There are no geology prerequisites, but beginning geology, chemistry, and physics are desirable. Three hours credit. (One hour lecture and four hours laboratory). Dr. Priddy.

22. Economic Geology.—This course will involve a study of the natural resources of the United States and other countries, with consideration of their stratigraphy, development, value and use. Three hours credit. (Two hours lecture and two hours laboratory). Prerequisite: Geology 11-12. Second semester. Dr. Priddy.

31. Geology of Mississippi.—This course will include a study of topographic maps and folios of the U. S. Geologic Survey; field observations, collection of fossils and correlation of horizons; special studies in Bulletins of the State Geological Survey and in the paleontology of Mississippi. Three hours credit (two hours lecture and two hours laboratory). Prerequisite: Geology 11-12. First semester, Dr. Priddy.

32. Structural Geology.—Structural features of the rocks composing the earth's crust, their origin and their relations to economic geology. Geological folios and reports on the structure of oil fields will be used in laboratory. Three credit hours (two hours lecture and two hours laboratory). Prerequisite: Geology 11-12. Second semester.

41. Physiography (Geomorphology).—A more detailed treatment of land forms than provided in Geology 11. Emphasis on physical geology of the United States and especially the Coastal Plain. Topographic maps and aerial photographs are to be used in laboratory. Three credit hours (two hours lecture and two hours laboratory). Prerequisite: Geology 11-12. First semester.

42. Petroleum Geology.—A course designed to acquaint students, both men and women, with structure and stratigraphy as applied to petroleum geology. Special attention is paid to surface and sub-surface mapping, geophysical methods of exploration, and correlation of drillers and electrical logs. For practice, a Mississippi oil pool will be followed through its various stages of exploration and development. Women students should find in this course the procedure they would follow if employed by oil companies. Prerequisites: Geology 11-12 and 32. Three semester hours (two lectures and two hours laboratory). Second semester.

51. Paleontology.—The principles of paleontology. Classification of invertebrates with reference to their evolutionary history and adaption to environment. Laboratory study of the morphology and distribution of fossils. Special attention will be paid to the diagnostic fossils of Mississippi geological units. Three hours credit (one hour lecture and four hours laboratory). Prerequisite Geology 11-12. First semester.

52. Micropaleontology.—A study of microscopic fossil life, especially the morphology and distribution of Gulf Coast foraminifera. The student will collect, wash, and study samples of Mississippi units known to contain abundant foraminifera. Cuttings from oil wells will be studied for their diagnostic forms. Three credit hours (one hour lecture and four hours laboratory). Prerequisites: Geology 11-12 and 51. Second semester.

IX DEPARTMENT OF GERMAN

PROFESSOR HAMILTON

PROFESSOR COOPER

A-1, A-2. Beginner's German.—This course is designed to give beginners the fundamentals of grammar and syntax together with easy reading exercises. The course may be used as a junior or senior elective, or may be applied to entrance units in satisfaction of language requirement. Several easy, short stories are read during the second semester. Dr. Hamilton and Dr. Cooper.

11-12. Intermediate German.—Review of grammar. The student is introduced to the great writers of German literature: Schiller, Freytag, and others. Six hours credit. Dr. Hamilton.

21-22. Advanced German.—More difficult reading in the works of the authors of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries is taken up in this course. This course is sometimes omitted and one in scientific German is substituted. Six hours credit. Dr. Hamilton.

31. German Conversation.—A course in Conversation offered in combination with German 21-22 or as an independent elective course. Two hours credit. Dr. Hamilton.

X THE DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

PROFESSOR MOORE PROFESSOR WHARTON

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR FERGUSON

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR ROBISON LECTURER McCAIN

History courses have been so planned that the student may follow the causal relationship in human development. Upon a thorough factual foundation, emphasis is placed on the progressive organization of social, intellectual, and moral ideals of peoples and nations. In the approach to an understanding of historical phenomena, literature, religion, racial factors, economic conditions, and social institutions, as well as forms of government, will be considered.

11-12. History of Europe.—An attempt is made to show that the problems and ideals of modern nations have come to them out of the past. This is done in order that the student may intelligently approach the problems of modern life in both its national and international aspects. Three hours credit for each semester. Dr. Moore, Mr. Ferguson, Mr. Robison, Dr. McCain.

21-22. History of the United States.—A general course in American history, covering the European background of colonial life, the Revolution, the constitution, and the new government in the first semester, while in the second semester, the course deals with the Civil War, Reconstruction, and the history of the United States to the present time. Three hours credit for each semester. Dr. Moore.

31-32. Ancient History.—Emphasis is placed upon the contributions of early civilization to modern western culture. The first semester presents the history of the Near East and Greece to the Peloponnesion War, while the second covers Hellenistic civilization, the development of the Roman Republic and Empire, and the blending of Roman culture with that of the people of northern Europe. Three hours credit for each semester. Dr. Wharton. Not offered 1947-1948.

41-42. The South.—Development of the southern region of the United States from the time of discovery to the present. The first semester takes the study through the Civil War, while the second semester considers the effects of the War and Reconstruction on the social, economic, and political structure of the South, and of the development of the region's current problems. Three hours credit for each semester. Mr. Ferguson.

51-52. Problems in Modern History.—The nature and impact of such present-day problems in international relations as Nationalism, Imperialism, Militarism, and Propaganda. The second semester continues with a study of the causes of the World War of 1914 and a broad view of the history of Europe since 1914. Prerequisite: History 11-12. Three hours credit for each semester. Dr. Moore.

61-62. Recent American History.—A topical survey of American history in which emphasis is placed upon political, economic, and social problems. Special papers on recent American history will be required. Three hours credit for each semester. Dr. Moore.

71-72. Hispanic America.—Consideration of both the Colonial era and the period of the Republic. A study of the political, social, and economic characteristics established by Spain in the New World, and of the wars for independence is made during the first semester The second semester continues with a study of the development, culture, and resources of the Hispanic American nations. Special attention is given to their relations with the United States. Three hours credit for each semester. Dr. Wharton.

91-92. Diplomatic History of the United States.—A study of the basic principles and events connected with American foreign policy, 1775-1947. Emphasis is placed on the development of such ideas as the Monroe Doctrine, Freedom of the Seas, Isolationism, etc. The United States' involvement in wars, especially World Wars I and II, is considered in detail. The first semester covers the period 1775-1865; the second semester treats the years from 1865 to the present. Mr. Ferguson.

201. History and Culture of Japan.—The need for more knowledge of Oriental peoples is recognized by thinking people of our day. This course gives an understanding of the development of Japanese social, political, and economic life.

202. History and Culture of China.—In order to live with the Oriental peoples—and we must live with them—we must know them. To know China is to know the Orient. To understand world problems after the war—one must understand the Orient. The American people cannot afford to remain disinterested in China. Our relations with the Orient will have to increase—and we need to know its peoples.

300. Special Problems.—An advanced course for students who are history majors. Three semester hours credit. Dr. Moore.

XI DEPARTMENT OF MATHEMATICS

PROFESSOR MITCHELL — INSTRUCTOR ROBERTS
PROFESSOR WARREN — MRS. BAILEY

11a-12a. Intermediate Algebra and Mathematics of Business.—Systems of equations, progressions, logarithms, probability. Fundamental notions of business, interest, annuities, elementary statistics, with application. Six hours credit. Dr. Mitchell.

11. College Algebra.—The notion of functional relation in two real variables; the equation; simultaneous linear, quadratic; determinants. Elementary series. Mathematical induction, the binomial theorem, complex numbers, theory of equations. Permutations, combinations, probability. First semester. Three hours credit. Mr. Roberts.

12. Plane and Spherical Trigonometry.—Definition of the trigonometric functions, properties, graphs, relations, identities, equations. Analysis. Solution of right and oblique triangles, logarithmic computation. second semester. Three hours credit. Dr. Warren, Mrs. Bailey, Mr. Roberts.

21. Plane Analytical Geometry.—Rectangular and polar coordinate systems. The straight line and the circle. The conic sections, transformations of coordinates. The general equation of the second degree. Loci and higher plane curves. Three hours credit. Offered both semesters. Dr. Warren.

31. Differential Calculus.—The fundamental notions of limit, infinitesimal, infinity, continuity. Differentiation of algebraic and the elementary transcendental functions. Applications. Differentials, mean value, series. Expansion of functions. Three hours credit. First semester. Dr. Warren.

32. Integral Calculus.—Integration as an operation, integration as summation. The definite integral. Applications. Multiple integrals. Three hours credit. Second semester. Dr. Warren.

41. Mechanical Drawing.—Orthographic, auxiliary, isometric, and cabinet projections. Dimensioning. Developments. The course is concluded with airplane drafting. Three hours credit. First semester. Dr. Mitchell.

42. Descriptive Geometry.—Solution of problems of points, lines, planes, and surfaces of single and double curvature. Problems in intersections and developments. The course is concluded with problems in graphic statics. Three hours credit. Second semester. Dr. Mitchell.

51. Mechanics.—Statics: problems of equilibrium of a particle and rigid body. Three hours credit, first semester. Dr. Warren.

52. Mechanics.—Dynamics of particle and rigid body. The gyroscope. Three hours credit, second semester. Dr. Warren.

61. College Geometry.—Post-Euclid Euclidean Geometry: Homothetic figures, collinearity and concurrency. Geometry of the triangle and circle. Inversion, Duality. Three hours credit. first semester. Dr. Mitchell.

71. Mathematics of Finance.—Interest and annuities. Applications to debts, bonds, capitalization, perpetuities. Elements of life insurance. Three hours credit, first semester. Dr. Mitchell.

72. Business Statistics.—Tabulation and graphical representation of data. Measures of central tendency and dispersion. Time series. Indexes. Correlation. Forecasting. Three hours credit. Dr. Warren.

81. Differential Equations.—A first course in differential equations of the first and second orders, with applications to geometry, physics, and mechanics. Three hours credit, first semester. Dr. Mitchell.

82. Theory of Equations.—Irrational numbers. Constructions. Algebraic solutions of the cubic and the quartic equations. Symmetric functions of the roots. Three hours credit, second semester. Dr. Mitchell.

111. Solid Geometry and Spherical Trigonometry.—Elements of spherical geometry with applications to mensuration of solids, and air and marine navigation. Three semester hours. Second semester. Dr Mitchell.

XII THE DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC

Faculty

MRS. ROBERTS, MR. KING, MRS. COULLET, MR. RUSSELL,
MISS SMITH, MRS. QUEEN, MRS. TURNER,
MRS. TAYLOR, MISS SLAUGHTER

Requirements for Entrance

The curricula of the School of Music are divided into three classifications, as follows: Preparatory, Intermediate, College. There are no requirements for admission to the preparatory department. Students are promoted to the intermediate division upon completion of the work of the preparatory department.

Candidates for a Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in music must meet the regular college entrance requirements as stated elsewhere in this catalog.

Students may also be admitted to advanced standing on the presentation of a satisfactory transcript of record of work pursued in an accredited music school of college grade.

A maximum of thirty semester hours of credit may be secured through examinations by students who have had work subsequent to high school graduation under competent private instructors. Examinations for advanced standing must be taken within six weeks of the student's registration.

Special students are admitted without reference to entrance requirements, but no college credit is allowed such students. Special students who can satisfy entrance requirements, however, and who desire credit for such work as they may take are subject to the same examinations and regulations as full course students. All credits earned are entered on the school records and may be used toward credentials at a later time, should the students eventually become candidates for graduation.

Description of Courses

The courses in this department are divided into three groups: (1) Theory of Music; (2) Music Education; (3) Applied Music. All courses continue throughout the year.

THEORY OF MUSIC

T11-12. Harmony I.—Scales; intervals; elementary chord formation; melody writing; primary and secondary triads; harmonization of original melodies; harmonic analysis. Four hours credit.

T21-22. Harmony II.—Ninth, eleventh, and thirteenth chords; altered chords derived from interchange of mode; Neapolitan sixth; augmented harmonies; transition; modulation; harmonic analysis. Four hours credit.

T31-32, T41-42. Keyboard Harmony I and II.—A two-year course, to be taken in conjunction with the study of harmony, at the end of which time the student should be able to play all the cadences in four-part harmonization and to execute simple modulations at the keyboard. Two hours credit each year.

T51-52, T61-62. Sight-Singing, Ear-Training, and Dictation I and II.—A two-year course, at the conclusion of which the student should be able to sing melodies at sight, to sing accurately any interval, and to take down from dictation melodies involving different problems. Two hours credit each year.

T71-72. Music History and Appreciation I.—Biographical and appreciation studies of the lives and writings of the classical, romantic, and early modern composers. A general survey of the development of the art of music. Two hours credit.

T81-82. Music History and Appreciation II.—A more critical survey of the development of the musical arts, with emphasis on special movements and phases, such as notation, early contrapuntal schools, rise and development of opera, classical and romantic schools, modern music. Two hours credit.

T101-2. Counterpoint I.—The C clefs; the modes; simple counterpoint in strict style for two, three, and four parts; combined counterpoint in strict style for three and four parts; writing for more than four parts in strict style; applied strict counterpoint. Four hours credit.

T111-2. Counterpoint II.—Modern free counterpoint for two, three, and four parts, both single and combined, and in both instrumental and vocal styles; invertible counterpoint; canonic imitation; original writing in the less advanced contrapuntal forms. Four hours credit.

T131-2, T141-2. Form and Analysis I and II.—A study of musical form through analysis of homophonic and contrapuntal composition, which may be continued for one or two years. Two hours credit each year.

T151-2. Composition I.—Analysis and practical written work in musical forms from the simple two and three part to the sonatina form. Four hours credit.

T161-2. Composition II.—Analysis and practical written work in musical forms, including variations, rondo, and a complete sonata. Four hours credit.

T171-2. Orchestration I.—A study of the character of each instrument of the orchestra and of the scoring of the different combinations. Four hours credit.

MUSIC EDUCATION

E11-12. Conducting I.—Baton technic; score reading; organization and management of high school orchestras; band repertoire for high school organizations. Two hours credit.

E21-22. Conducting II.—The interpretation of the orchestral score and the realization of the music with orchestra and band. Two hours credit.

E31-32, E41-42, E51-52, E61-62. Repertory and Interpretation.—The aim of these master classes is to promote a detailed as well as a general musical education and make for fine musicianship. The players receive constructive criticism. Concerted playing, as in two-piano work, is discussed and illustrated. Two hours credit each year.

E71-72, E81-82. Ensemble Playing I and II.—To the modern student the ability to play together with others is an indispensable asset. This course includes the study of sonatas, concertos, and other two-piano literature. It may be taken for one or two years. Two hours credit each year.

E91-92. School Music Methods I.—Aims and objectives of music education; material for use in kindergarten and primary grades. Four hours credit.

E101-2. School Music Methods II.—High school music. The development of chorus and glee club, with special attention to the selection and training of the adolescent voice. Four hours credit.

E111-2. School Music Methods III.—General supervision and management of the music program. Music tests and their use. Four hours credit.

E121-2. Practice Teaching and Seminar.—Practical experience in the classroom under supervision. Class discussion of the problems arising from this experience. Six hours credit.

E131-2. Piano Normal.—This course is designed to meet the problems of piano teachers, including the correct presentation of the rudiments of music, the principles of modern technique, teaching material, and pedagogical problems. Actual teaching will be demonstrated and teaching material will be on hand for inspection. Four hours credit.

APPLIED MUSIC

Credit in applied music is based on the number of hours of practice. One semester hour of credit is granted for each three hours per week of practice, plus the necessary individual instruction, with a limit of six semester hours per semester. Regular hours of practice are assigned to each student by the Director of the Department of Music. The number of hours of daily practice required ranges from one and a half to four, depending on the classification of the student. Credit is not earned unless final examinations are passed.

Piano

For entrance to the college division the student should play all major and minor scales in rapid tempo, as well as broken chords in octave position in all keys, should have systematic methods of practice, and should have studied some of the standard etudes such as Czerny, Op. 299, Book I, and Bach, Little Preludes, a few Bach two-part Inventions, and compositions corresponding in difficulty to Haydn, Sonata No. II, No. 20 (Schirmer) or Mozart, Sonata No. III, No. 13 (Schirmer).

Pi. A. B. Preparatory and Intermediate.

Pi. C. D. Fundamentals.—A special piano course for students majoring in violin and voice, giving them the fundamentals and enabling them to play accompaniments.

Pi. 11-12. First Year.—Scales, major and minor; arpeggios in all major and minor triads. Czerny, Op. 740; Bach: Three-Part Inventions, French Suites; Beethoven sonatas of the difficulty of Op. 14, No. 1.

Pi. 21-22. Second Year.—All major and minor scales with increased speed; arpeggios as 11-12 with increased speed; etudes of grade of Clementi Gradus or special technical training. Bach: English Suites, Well-Tempered Clavichord; Beethoven sonatas.

Pi. 31-32. Third Year. — Bach: Well-Tempered Clavichord; Chopin. Etudes; sonatas of Beethoven and others.

Pi. 41-42. Fourth Year.—Bach: larger works, such as Chromatic Fantasy and Fugue, Italian Concerto; sonatas of Beethoven, Chopin, and others; concertos of Beethoven, Chopin, Liszt, and others.

Pi. 51-52. Group Piano.—This course is designed for students who find it impossible to have individual lessons. It comprises the playing of hymns, accompaniments, sight reading, and a continuation of repertoire. Two hours credit.

Violin

Students are required to have mastered the forty-two Kreutzer Exercises before entering the senior year.

Vi. A, B.—Preparatory Course.—A series of studies following a definite scheme, yet adapted to needs of individual students, for those not sufficiently advanced to take Vi. 11-12.

Vi. 11-12. First Year.—Rode 24 Caprices; Viotti Concerto No. 22; Rode Concertos Nos. 7 and 8; DeBeriot Fantaisie Lyrique and Scene de Ballet; solo pieces by Godard, Dvorak, Massenet, and Svenson.

Vi. 21-22. Second Year.—Studies by Rode, Rovelli; DeBeriot Airs Nos. 5, 6, 7; DeBeriot Concertos Nos. 1 and 7; Spohr Concerto No. 2; solo pieces by David, Ries, Hubay, Leonard, Wieniawski, and Bazzini.

Vi. 31-32. Third Year.—Studies by Mazas, Dont (Gradus and Parnassum); solo pieces by Wieniawski, Vieuxtemps, Saraste, Brahms; concertos by Mendelssohn, Wieniawski, and Bruch.

Vi. 41-42. Fourth Year.—Studies by Wieniawski; Paganini Caprices; concertos by Beethoven, Lalo, Ernst, Vieuxtemps; solo pieces by Saraste, Saint-Saens, Wieniawski, and Vieuxtemps.

Voice

Before beginning the study of voice, the pupil should have some knowledge of the rudiments of music. The names of the notes and their position on the keyboard and the understanding of time and note values should be mastered before the pupil attempts the culture of the voice. Hence, the study of piano for at least one year is desirable for the voice student.

Vo. 11-12. First Year.—Principles of correct breathing and support, study of tone placing, attack of tone, staccato and legato, enunciation. Major scales and arpeggios. Vocal exercises by Panofka, Sieber, Abt, Concone. Songs of easy grade.

Vo. 21-22. Second Year.—Study of flexibility. Development of full range of voice, covered head tones, uniformity in color and quality of tone. Major and minor scales and arpeggios. Vocalises by Concone, Sieber, Lutgen, Lamperti, and others. Songs of medium difficulty in English and other languages.

Vo. 31-32. Third Year.—Attention to embellishments, turns, mordents, and trills. Development of tone, color, and volume. Italian vocalises by Vaccai, Panofka, Bordona. Study of classics. Difficult sings in English, German, French, and Italian.

Vo. 41-42. Fourth Year.—Continued study in advanced technique. Study of style and interpretation, beauty and finish of tone. Vocalises by Marchesi, Lutgen, Lamperti. Master songs by Schumann, Schubert, Brahms, Grieg, and others. Oratoria, arias from opera in English, Italian, French, German.

XIII DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY

PROFESSOR FLEMING PRESIDENT SMITH

The courses in philosophy are designed to help the student develop a critical attitude toward life and also an appreciative understanding of life.

11. Introduction to Philosophy.—The course is designed to introduce the student to the field of philosophy, that he may learn how comprehensive the field is, and learn also how philosophy is related to life as it is lived from day to day. Three hours credit, first semester.

12. Ethics.—A study of principles which should be used in the choosing of personal and social values. Three hours credit, second semester.

22. Logic.—A study of the principles of valid reasoning, of how these principles are most commonly violated, and of how they can be applied to the problems of life. Three hours credit, second semester.

31. History of Philosophy.—A survey of the development of philosophical thought in the ancient and medieval periods. Three hours credit, first semester.

32. History of Philosophy.—A survey of the development of philosophical thought from the Renaissance to the present. Three hours credit, second semester.

41. Philosophy of Religion.—A study of religious experience in its relation to the whole of life. Three hours credit, first semester.

42. Metaphysics.—A study of the basic categories of experience and reality. Three hours credit, second semester.

51-52. Oriental Philosophy.—A study of the philosophies of the East. One hour credit, each semester.

91-92. Directed Study in Philosophy. (Not offered in 1947-1948).

XIV DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND ATHLETICS

McNEIL BARTLING, JR., Director of Athletics and Physical Education

JACK WINBORN, Assistant Coach

MISS FRANCES DECELL, Director of Women's Physical Education

11-12. Basic Physical Training For Men.—Two hours each week for the entire year. The course is designed to condition the student and to give basic fundamentals in all seasonal sports. Required of all freshmen except G.I. students. Two hours credit per year.

21-22. Theory of High School Coaching.—Specialized course open only to men planning to enter high school coaching. This course is designed to prepare men to operate a full scale high school athletic and physical education program. Three hours per week. Six hours credit per year.

(All of these are semester unit courses. First semester grades cannot be averaged with those of the second semester).

11-12. Freshman Fundamentals (women).—A general course required of all freshmen. This includes the fundamentals of selected recreational sports, team sports, rhythms, golf, and tennis. First and second semester. One hour's credit per semester. Miss Decell.

21-22. Golf (Open to upperclassmen).—Beginners' and advanced study of Golf. First and second semesters. One hour's credit per semester. Miss Decell.

31-32. Tennis (Open to upperclassmen).—Beginners' and advanced study of tennis. First and second semesters. One hour's credit per semester. Miss Decell.

51-52. Horseback Riding (Open to men and women).—Classes are conducted at Stockett's Riding Academy. Extra fee charged. $12.50 per course per semester. Course deals with the care of horses, safety in riding, and techniques of riding. First and second semesters. One hour's credit per semester.

41. Recreational Leadership (Open to men and women).—This course is devoted to the study of the history and development of Recreation, to leadership in this field, and to selected areas of the profession such as individual, community, institutional and industrial recreation. First semester only. Three hours credit. Miss Decell.

62. Physical Education for the Elementary Grades.—The course is designed primarily for those in the teaching profession. Characteristics of the elementary school child, activities suited to the physical and mental levels represented, facilities and equipment are considered. Selected children are used for experimental purposes. Second semester only. Two hours credit. Miss Decell.

XV DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICS AND ASTRONOMY

PROFESSOR HARRELL ASSISTANT PROFESSOR GALLOWAY

Physics

11-12. General Physics.—An elementary treatment of Mechanics, Heat, Sound, Magnetism, Electricity, and Light. Prerequisite: Trigonometry. Two lectures and one laboratory period. Six hours credit. Mr. Galloway.

11A-12A. General Physics.—An elementary treatment of Mechanics, Heat, Sound, Magnetism, Electricity, and Light. Prerequisite: Trigonometry. Three lectures and one laboratory period. Eight hours credit. Mr. Galloway.

21-22. Preprofessional Physics.—A laboratory course designed, in conjunction with Physics 11-12, or 11A-12A to meet the needs of those students who expect to enter professional schools where eight or ten semester hours of physics are required for admission. One laboratory period. Two hours credit. Mr. Galloway.

31-32. Intermediate General Physics.—An advanced course dealing with the properties of matter, mechanics, heat, sound, magnetism, electricity, and light. Three lecture periods. Six hours credit. Mr. Galloway.

41. Mechanics and Heat.—A further study of mechanics and heat with special attention given to thermodynamics, calorimetry, and the kinetic theory of gases. The laboratory work will be devoted, in part, to the determination of the fuel value of different fuels. Two lectures, and one laboratory period. Three hours credit. Mr. Harrell.

42. Light.—This course treats of the principles and laws of reflection, refraction, interference, polarization, and color phenomena. Two lectures and one laboratory period. Three hours credit. Mr. Harrell.

51-52. Electricity.—A study of electrical measuring instruments and their use in actual measurements, power stations and the distribution of power, lighting, heating, and communication. Two lectures and one laboratory period. Six hours credit. Mr. Galloway.

61-62. Special Problems.—A laboratory course designed to give the student opportunity to do work on problems in which he has developed a special interest. Six hours credit. Mr. Galloway, Mr. Harrell.

71. Meteorology.—Two lectures and one laboratory period. Three hours credit. Mr. Harrell.

81. Photography.—A study of developing, printing, enlarging, and lantern slides. One laboratory period. One hour credit. Mr. Galloway.

Astronomy

11-12. General Astronomy.—This course will be devoted to a study of the earth, the moon, time, the constellations, the solar system, the planets, comets, meteors, the sun, the development of the solar system, and the siderial universe. Prerequisite: Trigonometry. Two lectures and one observatory period. Six hours credit. Mr. Harrell.

21-22. Practical Astronomy and Navigation.—This course covers the subject of spherical astronomy and the theory of astronomical instruments with exercises in making and reducing observations. Two lectures and one laboratory period. Six hours credit. Mr. Harrell.

31-32. Surveying.—This course involves the general principles of surveying with particular attention to the method of the Coast and Geodetic Survey. Prerequisite: Trigonometry. One lecture and one double laboratory period. Six hours credit. Mr. Harrell.

AVIATION

Millsaps College recognizes the current trend toward aviation and has added to its courses in Meteorolgy and Navigation courses of instruction which lead toward licenses and ratings as granted by the Civil Aeronautics Administration. This training is considered a desirable functional part of courses leading to a degree in the college.

Millsaps College does not have the necessary facilities to offer Aviation 11A, 11B, 21A and 21B, but arrangements have been made with Dixie Air Services, Inc., Jackson, Mississippi, to give this training and classes can be satisfactorily scheduled.

Any student, regularly enrolled in the college, may enroll with Dixie Air Services, Inc., and take any and all of the courses listed below. Full college credit will be awarded to students taking these courses. No books, supplies, or equipment required by the college will be duplicated by enrollment in the flight school.

Aviation 11A. Private Pilot Ground Instruction.—Students taking this course must have completed or be presently enrolled in Meteorology (Physics 71) and Navigation (Astronomy 22). The course consists of 20 hours of classroom instruction in Civil Air Regulations, Radio, and General Service of Aircraft. The curriculum followed will be that set forth for Basic Ground School in Civil Aeronautics Manual 50. 1 semester hour.

Aviation 11B. Private Pilot Flight Instruction.—Students taking this course must have completed or be presently enrolled in Aviation 11A. This course consists of a maximum of 45 hours of dual and solo flight instruction. The curriculum to be followed will be that set forth for Primary Flying School in Civil Aeronautics Manual 50. 1 semester hour.

The successful completion of Physics 71 and Astronomy 22, Aviation 11A and 11B will qualify the student for a Private Pilot License as granted by the Civil Aeronautics Administration.

Aviation 21A. Flight Instructor Ground Instruction.—This course consists of 40 hours of classroom instruction in Fundamentals of Instruction and Flight Instruction Technique and Methods. The curriculum followed will be that set forth for Flight Instructor Ground School in Civil Aeronautics Manual 50. 1 semester hour.

Aviation 21B. Flight Instructor Flight Instruction.—Students taking this course must have completed or be presently enrolled in Aviation 21A. This course consists of a maximum of 40 hours of dual and solo flight instruction. The curriculum followed will be that set forth for Flight Instructor Flying School in Civil Aeronautics Manual 50. 1 semester hour.

The successful completion of Aviation 21A and 21B will qualify the student for a Flight Instructor's Rating as granted by the Civil Aeronautics Administration.

XVI DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR ROBISON

PROFESSOR MOORE ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR FERGUSON

XIX DEPARTMENT OF ROMANCE LANGUAGES

PROFESSOR SANDERS ASSISTANT PROFESSOR CRAIG
ASSISTANT PROFESSOR COBB MRS. EZELLE

This department offers courses in French and Spanish. The regular work begins with course 11, but for the benefit of those who have not been able to fulfill the entrance requirements in this subject before entering college, a preparatory course (course A) is offered. This course (when taken under the supervision of the college and not counted as an entrance unit) may be used as a junior or senior elective. For entrance, course A will count as two units provided the student makes a grade of not less than C.

In the B. S. course twelve hours of French, German, or Spanish above the elementary course are required.

A student is not permitted to enter courses 11 and 12 in French and Spanish until both semesters of the A course have been satisfactorily completed. Likewise a student will not be admitted to courses 21 and 22 in French and Spanish until 11 and 12 have been completed.

Under no condition will a student be permitted to begin French and Spanish the same year.

A student should consult the professors in charge before planning to take more than two modern languages. Any course not already counted may be used as a junior or senior elective.

FRENCH

A-1, A-2. Elementary French.—An elementary course in which special attention is given to pronunciation. Six hours credit. Miss Craig, Mrs. Ezelle.

11-12. Intermediate French.—The methods of French A-1 and A-2 will be continued according to the needs and aptitudes of the class.
